

JAMES by the grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all and singular Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, Deanes and their Officials, Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and to all spirituall persons. And also to all Iustices of Peace, Maiors, Sheriffes, Bayliffes, Constables, Church-wardens, and Headboroughes. And to all Officers of Cities, Boroughes, and Townes Corporate. And to all other our Officers, Ministers, and Subiects whatsoever they be aswell within Liberties as without, to whom these Presents shall come, greeting.

Whereas We are credibly giuen to vnderstand aswell by the humble Supplication and Petition of one Religious Philotheos a Grecian, and Procurator generall of the Couent of the holy Crosse of Golgotha in Iherusalem, situate in the very same place where our Sauour dyed vpon the Crosse for our Redemption, as also by other sufficient testimonie, That in the foresaid most sacred and holy Place, that euer renowned and famous Saint HELEN, out of her extraordinary zeale and deuotion vnto our blessed Sauour, built a most rich and sumptuous Monasterie and Temple, the which (not without great iniurie and dishonour to Christian Religion) the Turkes would haue made a Mesquit of Mahomet, for which cause the Religious of the foresaid Monasterie were forced to promise the payment of three thousand crownes yeerely to the great Turke, that onely they might haue libertie to celebrate diuine Service in that sacred place, where the precious blood of Christ was shed, the Turkes hauing depriued them of the Rents thereunto appertayning, and which heretofore they did possesse, wherefore being perswaded that all Christian Kings and Princes which beleue that CHRIST IESVS dyed in the foresaid place, to be bound in charitie to succour with their gifts and almes the foresaid Religious men there residing, especially in regard they are engaged to pay fixe thousand crownes to free from death thirteene of the said Religious men, which were condemned to death vniustly, and in the defence of the holy Faith of IESVS CHRIST, by those barbarous Infidels, as is manifest by euident testimonie, who not hauing wherewith to pay downe the said fixe thousand crownes, were constrained to vndertake the payment of fifteene in the hundred yeerely for interest, vntill the principall money be paid, to which end the King of Spaine hath already sent his Royall almes, Therefore the said Religious Philotheos hath most humbly besought Vs, that of Our Princely fauour, and bounty in a matter of so great a consequence, We would be pleased for the better maintenance of the said Temple, and preserving the same from the barbarous Infidels, and for the redemption of the said thirteene Religious men, to afford them such reliefe as to others hath bene granted by way of a Collection of the charitie of well disposed persons aswell within Our Citie of London as in certayne Counties in this Our Realme, vnto whose request (Wee being moued with a Princely and pious commiseration towards the poore Christians in that place residing, and for the preservation of those ancient monuments which yet remayne in the place of our Redemption, from the hands of Infidels, haue thought fit to condescend vnto as a matter well becomming Vs, being determined to contribute Our Princely almes to the same end and purpose Our selfe: Not doubting but that all good Christians vpon the due consideration of the premisses, will be ready and willing, and the rather for Our commendation hercof, and Our owne example herein, to extend their liberall contributions towards the furtherance of so good a worke.

Know ye therefore, That of Our especiall Grace and Princely compassion, Wee haue giuen and granted, and by these Our Letters Patents doe giue and grant vnto the said Religious Philotheos, of the behalfe of the foresaid Couent and to his Deputie and Deputies the Bearer or Bearers hereof, full power, licence and authoritie, to aske, gather, receiue and take the almes and charitable beneuolence of all Our louing Subiects whatsoever, inhabiting within Our Cities of London and Westminster, with the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and in Our Counties of Middlesex, Oxon, and Cambridge, with Our Citie of Oxford, Our Isle of Ely, and Our Vniuersities. And in all other Cities, Townes Corporate, priuiledged places, Parishes, Villages, and in all other places whatsoever, within Our said Counties, and not elsewhere, for and towards the payments aboue mentioned, and the reliefe and maintenance of the foresaid place, and the poore Christians therein residing.

Wherefore, Wee will and command you and euery of you, that at such time and times as the said Religious Philotheos or his Deputie or Deputies, the Bearer or Bearers hereof, shall come and repaire vnto any your Churches, Chappels, or other places, to aske and receiue the gratuities and charitable beneuolence of Our said Subiects, quietly to permit and suffer them so to doe, without any manner your lets or contradictions. And you the said Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, with Our foresaid Cities of London and Westminster, and in Our Countie of Middlesex, for the better stirring vp of a charitable deuotion, deliberately to publish and declare the Tenor of these Our Letters Patents in your Parish Churches, vnto Our said Subiects in your Pulpits two seuerall Sabbath dayes together next after your receipt thereof, and that no other Collection shall be made on those dayes for any other person at all, exhorting and perswading them to extend their liberall contributions in so good and pious a worke. And you the Church-wardens of euery Parish where such Collections are to be made as aforesaid, to collect and gather the almes and charitable beneuolence of all Our louing Subiects aswell Strangers as others. And what shall be by you so gathered to be by the Minister and your selues endorsed on the back-side of these Our Letters Patents or the Copy or Bricie thereof, vnder your seuerall hands in words at length and not in figures, and the summe or summes of money so gathered and endorsed together with the said Bricies, you the said Parson, Vicar, or Curate, and Church-wardens of euery Parish within Our foresaid Cities and Countie of Middlesex, shall with all speed returne vnto the hands of the Reuerend Father in God the Lord Bishop of London, to be by his Lordships direction sent (together with Our said Princely almes) vnto Iherusalem, vnto the vses before directed by some English Merchants, who shall be thereunto appointed for the speedy effecting of Our Royall intent herein. And you the said Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within Our foresaid Counties of Oxon and Cambridge, with Our Citie of Oxford and Isle of Ely, for the better stirring vp of the like deuotion, deliberately to publish and declare the Tenor of these Our Letters Patents vnto Our said Subiects in your Parish Churches in your Pulpits vpon the next Sabbath day after your receipt thereof, and that no other Collection shall be made vpon the same day for any other person, exhorting and perswading them to extend their liberall contributions in so religious a worke. And you the Church-wardens of euery Parish where such collections are to be made as aforesaid, carefully to collect and gather from Seate to Seate the almes and charitable beneuolence of all Our louing Subiects, aswell Strangers as others, and such as are absent from Church to repaire to their houses for their beneuolence. And what shall be by you so gathered to be by the Minister and your selues, first set downe in words at length in a white paper booke, which shall be tendered vnto you by the said Religious Philotheos or his Deputie or Deputies, the Bearer or Bearers hereof, being subscribed with the hand of the said Reuerend Father in God the Lord Bishop of London, and afterwards to endorse the same vpon the back-side of these Our Letters Patents, and the summe and summes of money so gathered and endorsed, to deliuer to the said Religious Philotheos or his Deputie or Deputies and to no other person, when as thereunto you shall be required. And as Wee recommend this charitable worke vnto all Our louing Subiects in generall, so more especially vnto you of both Our Vniuersities, willing and requiring you to further with your words and works the said Religious Philotheos: And to the end Wee may haue true information hereof, Our will and pleasure is, that the almes so giuen to the said Religious Philotheos, be set downe in the foresaid paper booke, vnder the hands of some of the chieft of euery Colledge or House, and afterwards endorsed on the back-side of these Our Letters Patents, and the money so gathered to be deliuered to the said Religious Philotheos or his Deputie or Deputies in manner last aboue mentioned: Any Statute, Law, Ordinance, or Prouision heretofore made to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding.

In witnesse whereof Wee haue caused these Our Letters to be made Patents for the space of one whole year next after the date hereof to endure. Witnesse Our selfe at Westminster the thirteenth day of October, in the nineteenth year of Our raigne of England, France, and Ireland, and of Scotland the five and fiftieth.

STEWART:

God save the King
